7 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
8 WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
9 AT SEATTLE

10 GS HOLISTIC, LLC,

CASE NO. C23-0400JLR

11 Plaintiff,

ORDER

12 v.

13 ONWARD MEDIA LLC, et al.,

14 Defendants.

15 Before the court is Plaintiff GS Holistic, LLC’s (“GS Holistic”) second motion for 16 a ten-day extension of the deadline to file a waiver of service. (Mot. (Dkt. # 15).)
17 Because none of the Defendants have appeared in this action, the court exercises its 18 discretion under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 1 to decide this motion before the 19 October 6, 2023 noting date. Fed. R. Civ. P. 1 (directing courts to construe the Federal 20 Rules of Civil Procedure “to secure the just, speedy, and inexpensive determination of 21 every action and proceeding”). The court has reviewed GS Holistic’s motion, the

1 relevant portions of the record, and the governing law. Being fully advised, the court
2 GRANTS GS Holistic's motion.

3 On August 22, 2023, the court granted in part GS Holistic's second motion for an 4 extension of time to effect service on Defendants Jonathan Stephani and Rahn Burns
5 (together, "Defendants") and ordered GS Holistic to file proof of service on Defendants
6 by no later than September 12, 2023. (8/21/23 Order (Dkt. # 12); see also 6/15/23 Order
7 (Dkt. # 8) (granting GS Holistic's first motion for an extension of time to effect service).)

8 On September 14, 2023, rather than timely file proof of service, GS Holistic filed 9 its first motion for a 10-day extension of time to file waivers of service in light of the 10 parties' settlement discussions and Defendants' counsel's unavailability. (1st Waiver 11 Mot. (Dkt. # 13).) The court granted the motion that same day and ordered GS Holistic 12 to file the waivers of service by no later than September 22, 2023. (9/14/23 Order (Dkt.
13 # 14).)

14 On September 22, 2023, rather than timely file the waivers of service, GS Holistic 15 filed the instant motion for a second 10-day extension of time to file waivers of service.
16 (Mot.) GS Holistic attached to its motion correspondence between GS Holistic's 17 corporate counsel and counsel for Defendants in which Defendants' counsel stated that he 18 had not received authorization from his clients to either approve or reject GS Holistic's
19 waivers of service. (Id., Ex. A at 28-34.¹)

20 _____
21 ¹ The court refers to the page numbers in the CM/ECF header when citing to the exhibit 22 to this motion. The court notes that the first 27 pages of this exhibit appear to relate to a deposition in another case. Counsel for GS Holistic is ADMONISHED to submit only those materials relevant to the case at issue when filing motions.

1 Local Civil Rule 7(j) provides that a “motion for relief from a deadline should,
2 whenever possible, be filed sufficiently in advance of the deadline to allow the court to 3 rule on the motion prior to the deadline.” Local Rules W.D. Wash. LCR 7(j). “Parties 4 should not assume that the motion will be granted and must comply with the existing 5 deadline unless the court orders otherwise.” Id. Here, GS Holistic once again did not file 6 its motion until the deadline for filing its waivers of service. (See Dkt.) Nevertheless, the 7 court will GRANT GS Holistic’s motion for an additional ten-day extension of the 8 deadline to file the waivers of service (Dkt. # 15). GS Holistic shall file either the 9 waivers of service or affidavits of service by no later than October 2, 2023. GS Holistic 10 is ORDERED to be mindful of the deadlines set by this court in the many cases it has 11 filed in this District and to plan ahead to meet those deadlines. No further extensions of 12 deadlines will be granted in this case.

13 Dated this 26th day of September, 2023.
